

Bert van Niejenhuis

CowSignals Master trainer of the CowSignals training company
Veterinarian

Short CV

- Born 28 September 1978 in Delfzijl, north of the Netherland
- Parents grew up on a dairy farm, spend most of his holiday time on dairy farm of grandparents
- Qualified Veterinarian at the University of Utrecht
- 2 months on Russian dairy farm making Claw Health Program
- 1 month Californian University and Vet practice
- Specialization of production animals in 2007
- Right after graduation start as practitioner in private veterinarian practice, working 90% of his time with dairy animals
- 2011 became co-owner of this practice
- 2008 start his work as CowSignals trainer giving lectures in Europe, Asia en North-America
- 2014 became Master trainer, also provides lectures and workshops as PeopleSignals trainer
- 2010- 2013 chairman of veterinarian knowledge study group
- 2010 -2014 member of comity organizing yearly conference for all large animals practitioners in the Netherlands
- Loves to play soccer, do mountain biking, skiing and walking in the mountains
- Married to Nienke and proud father of son Bram and daughter Noor